It was Tom's father's birthday yesterday. Tom baked a cake for him. He wanted to take it to his father's house. He went to the bus stop and got on the bus. He told the bus driver that he wanted to go to 256 Sesame Street. The driver said, "No problem. Let's go!"

However, two minutes later, the bus hit a bump. Tom yelled loudly, "OH, no! My cake flew out of the window." He got off the bus quickly and followed his cake to the shore. He saw his cake falling onto a boat. Kitty the sailor was surprised to see the cake falling on her boat. She said, "How lucky I am! I got a cake!" Tom was really sad. He cried and told Kitty, "The cake on your boat is my father's birthday gift. Can you row your boat over and give the cake back to me?" Kitty said, "Sure!"

Tom was happy because he got his cake back. He thanked Kitty for her help and waved good-bye to her.

Finally he got to his father's house and gave the cake to him. His father felt very happy because of the birthday surprise.
